5TH COLUMN DANGERS REVEALED

WASHINGTON
By CONGRESSMAN POAGE
Thinks Offensive Now Is Vital

I believe that there is an increasing recognition here in Washington of the fact that in order to win this war we must take the offensive. Of course, an offensive campaign involves risks. It may involve serious losses, but as I see it, a strictly defensive policy makes serious losses certain. We can never expect to be so overwhelminingly strong that we can have superior forces at every point the world over which might be subject to attack. We have naval and air superiority along our own Atlantic coast today, but we cannot prevent the Germans from finding and sinking an number of unarmed and unescorted ships. The Japs have a similiar superiority along their own coast, but I cannot believe that they could prevent American submarines from inflicting serious injury to their shipping if we would but press the attack home. And after all, Japan is just as dependent on shipping as we are. They have long lines of communications that they must keep open in order to keep their offensive going in the South Pacific.

By attacking their shipping lanes and even their islands we not only effectively relieve the pressure on the Dutch and the Australians and enable them to more easily defend their lands, we secure the great advantage of being able to concentrate our forces at a point of our own choosing and meeting the enemy at a point where he has not been able to concentrate his forces. So far we have fought only defensive actions. Possibly this has been necessary, but to win we must take the offensive ourselves. With the coming of spring in Europe, great offensive actions are certain. If we simply wait for the blow to fall without knowing where the enemy will strike we are almost certain to be defeated. I believe that the President's recent statments indicate that he holds the same views Certainly he has made it clear that the pacifist Senators who did not

Mr. Clore recently announced as a candidate for the office of Assessor and Collector of Taxes and finds that the campaign which he plans to conduct will consume too much time to permit satisfactory service on the Board and therefore has tendered his resignation.

The other two members of the Board are Chas. E. Allday and J. B. White.

The Board has expressed to Mr. Clore its appreciation for the service he has rendered and regrets that he can no longer continue to serve.

Appointments to the Board are made by the Governor of the State. They serve without pay.

TEXAS EX-STUDENTS TO FOREGO MAR. 2 BANQUET

Conn R. Isaacs, President of the Association of former students of the University of Texas announced today that the annual banquet scheduled for March 2 has been canceled.

Mr. Isaacs in a letter to members of the Association here and at Austin and other places gives the reasons as follows:

"Several weeks ago it was suggested by various members of our Ex-Student Association that due to the national emergency it would be advisable to dispense with the annual banquet this year.

"Following this suggestion, I have talked with numerous ex-students of the University, asking at every opportunity their opinion on this and the response has unanimously been to dispense with the March 2, 1942, banquet in the interest of conserving rubber and not diverting any funds that outherwise would be available for the purchase of Defense Stamps. I take this means of advising you of this action and trust that it meets with your approval.

"That's For My Son Who Died at Pearl Harbor" Says Mother Who Slaps Face of Two Who Talk Of Easy Life and Money They Are Now Earning

Here's a story that came to the publisher's desk today.

A bus was nearing a neighboring city. It was crowded. Passengers were talking and of course the conversation turned to the war.

Near the center of the bus sat an elderly mother, slightly gray and sad of face. In another section of the bus sat two complacents, a man and a woman.

The complacents commenting on the war said they were getting along better than before the war, both earning good pay. Conversation subsided as the man and woman continued. The man expressed hope conditions would not change his status, for said, he "I am doing alright, in fact we are making more money than we ever have."

The bus stopped and the mother got up to leave. As she passed the couple she stopped and looked at them, then slapped the woman's face. "That," she said "is for my son who died at Pearl Harbor." Turning, she slapped the face of the man. "That," she said "is for my other son who is in the army."

AMERICAN AND DUTCH SINK 10 JAP SHIPS

The Fifth Column was blamed by Secretary of War Stimson today for the appearance of enemy planes over Los Angeles Wednesday morning.

Mr. Stimson expressed the belief that that these planes may have been flown by residents of California.

This statement was amazing because it discloses that if aliens or enemies of the country can base their planes in California, fly over and bomb the city, it is not a very good indication that there has been anything like a round up of enemies.

Mr. Stimson was emphatic in his statement that they were enemy planes. There was some speculation that these planes may be based in lower California and no doubt swift action is being taken.

Dutch and American air men were continuing devastating attacks on the Japanese off Bali and Wednesday had sunk five ships. During Thursday five more ships were sent to the bottom, making a total of 10 in the last 48 hours.

The British Admiralty announced this morning that a German cruiser of 10,000 tons was sunk off the coast of Norway Saturday.

General Douglas MacArthur is counter attacking in the Philippines and has driven the Japanese out of some of their advanced positions.

Rangoon has been evacuated and is expected to fall at any time. It is being defended by the British.

PLANES TWICE DRIVEN OFF EARLY WEDNESDAY

The radio at 7 a. m. Wednesday, again at 7:30 and again at 7:45 told as yet an unconfirmed story of an enemy air raid over Los Angeles.

There has been no official statement from the government in Washington.

The west cost of the United States Wednesday morning had its first air raid in which anti air craft guns went into action.

Enemy planes, two waves of them came over Los Angeles. They were said driven off by anti-aircraft fire from coast emplacements. Later the planes came back and were again driven off.

News broadcasters said that shell flashes revealed the planes which were undoubtedly Japanese. The first wave of planes came over the city at 4 a. m.

Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation arrested an undisclased number of Japanese aliens caught signaling the planes from nearby hills.

It is increasingly apparent that the Government is taking unnecessary chances by leniency to aliens of the enemy countries.

Indications were the American people are going to crack down.

Orders issued to fighting forces in Java read thiks this: No retreat. They shall not pass.

The Japanese this morning bombed the Capital of Australia.

A climax is certain in Burma within the next few days or perhaps hours.

There is some more fun in Macassar straits this morning. Three Japanese transports loaded with Mongolians were sent to the bottom. American bombers flew out to the attack but the news commentator said that one plane alone had accounted for the three transports.

What is said to be the worst defeat yet suffered by the Nazi is occuring in Russia. The entire 16th Army of the Germans has been surrounded and the work of anihiliation is in progress.

It was believed the Germans are in a bad way in Russia and may have suffered more than even the Russian reports indicate.

Bassett Watson Is Made Bonham Manager of Texas Power & Light Company; Cameron Born And Reared; Has Fine Record With Company

Transfer of Bassett Watson, assistant manager of the Texas Power & Light Co., here, to Bonham as local manager was announced Friday by A. G. McRae, Denison district manager. Mr. Watson and Mr. McRae went to Bonham Thursday when the former assumed his new post. He and Mrs. Watson, now residing at 923 West Morton, will move to Bonham shortly.

Mr. Watson succeeds M. D. Johnson, recently called to the army, who became manager at Bonham when Mr. Rae was sent to Denison as district manager last July.

Mr. Watson came to Denison July 12, 1937, from Cameron as chief clerk and was made assistant manager last February. Reared at Cameron, he entered T. P. & L. employment as clerk there soon after his graduation at the University of Texas in 1927 and was advanced to chief clerk before coming to Denison.

Actively identified with civic and social activities here, Mr. Watson was president of the Lions Club for 1840-41, and this week completed a term as vice president of the Chamber of Commerce. He is chairman of the Lions membership committee, a director of the Boosters Club, on the Red River Valley Boy Scout Council executive committee and a member of the Rod and Gun Club and Elks.

The above account of the promotion of Mr. Watson is from the Denison newspaper. He is the son of Judge and Mrs. John Watson of Cameron and as stated in the news story was born and reared in Cameron.

He has a fine record with the company and many friends here will be glad to know of his promotion.

Cable and Telegram Precautions Help to Protect Military Facts

Hundreds of people ask Western Union daily where "Sans Origine" is, Mrs. Woodrow Lowe, local manager of the Telegraph Company reports. They say they can't find such a place on the map, and there must be some error because it is the point of origin shown on a cablegram.

"Cablegrams from members of the American armed forces at foreign points are delivered with the date line reading, "Sans Origine" as a matter of security to prevent any clues as to the location of American troops from falling into the hands of enemies through inadvertent remarks by recipients, Mrs. Lowe explained.

"The Western Union people have been asked if "Sans Origine" is Icelandic of Gaelic, because the recipient believes their relatives are in Iceland or northern Ireland, when they are informed the phrase is French for "Without Origin," some ask if that means their boys are in France. The answer is that the French phrase is no indication at all of the location of the troops, but is one of the standard phrases used in international communications, which are expressed in French."

Eleanor Quits the OCD; Third to Get Out of Organization

Eleanor has resigned from the O. C. D. and this is the third prominent resignation since Congress went on the war path against poltroonery in the Office of Civilian Defense.

Mrs. Roosevelt has tendered her resignation and Mayor LaGuardia had previously resigned also. Pharis Chaney, dancer, who was brought in to give a streamlined edition of the Can Can, quit when an irate Congressman brought on the tumult in a hot speech against appropriation for such activities.

Miss Chaney was to have entertained the children's section, presumably in air raid shelters, while the Japanese and Germans droned over head dropping something besides leaflets.

Melvin Douglas, screen actor, was accused of being a Communist and was driven out and it apperead today that the O. C. D. had settled down to fundamentals with a hundred million dollars appropriation to dig fox holes and shelter for the unemployed during enemy attacks.

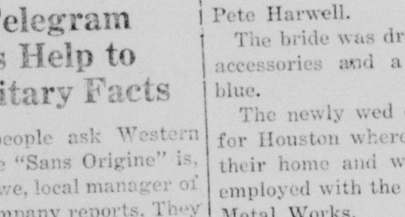
Guns and Vitamins

. . . it takes both to win a war!



"AN ARMY TRAVELS ON ITS STOMACH"—this is one fundamental that has not been changed in the technique of war. Likewise our civilian defense cooperation can be no better than our physical ability to meet our wartime responsibilities. But all the food planning and careful marketing in the world cannot preserve healthful vitamins unless care is exercised in the preparation of the food for the table.

THE RIGHT KIND OF FOOD is especially important these days. It can mean the difference between giving your family foods rich in healthful vitamins—and serving meals that have very few vital elements. Vitamin saving is easier with modern gas cooking methods.

NEW LOTTERY DRAFTEE DATE IS MARCH 17TH

Washington, Feb. 22.—Selective Service headquarters today set the new draft lottery for March 17—St. Patrick's day and announced that the numbers determining the order of liability of service of some 8,000,000 men will be enclosed in green capsules.

The lottery itself will follow in general the procedure of the two previous drawings under the selective service law. Capsules containing numbers will be mixed, then drawn by blindfolded government officials. The goldfish bowl first used in the 1917 World War drawing again will hold the numbers.

The men whose numbers will be drawn are those who registered on Feb. 16, when all aged 20 to 44, inclusive and not previously registered signed up with their local draft boards.

Between now and the lottery, draft boards will shuffle the new registration cards and number them T-1, T-2, T-3, etc., the "T" standing for third registration. Similar sets of numbers will be in the lottery capsules.

Those holding the first number drawn will be the first of the new group of registrants to be considered for military service.

All the new registrants, however will be placed behind those already registered in draft board lists. As a mechancial device to this end, the first number drawn—suppose it is T-42—will be listed as Order Number 10,001. The next number drawn will be Order Number 10,002 etc. All present order numbers are below 10,000.

Officials estimated that 8,000 to 9,000 numbers would be drawn in the first war-time lottery sinee 1918. Sufficient numbers must be drawn to cover the total of men reigstered with the local board having the largest registration.

None of the new registrants need expect a call to service for about two months after the lottery.

"It is contemplated," headquarters said, "that registrants in the third registration will not be called until they have answered their questionnaires and have been classified, which probably will not be before May. Prior to May, all war department quotas necessariiy must be filled from men 21 to 31, inclusive, who registered in 1940 and 1941."

New Restrictions Are Announced on Tires

Tire rationing restrictions were tightened today to make it more difficult to purchase tires when John B. Henderson announced new regulations.

Any purchase of tires approved by the Board requires that all old rubber in use or not in use must be brought in and traded in on new tires.

It is no longer possible to purchase out right a set of new tries even from the approved list because old tires must be traded in at the time the purchase is made.

H. W. Sanders Dies in Fire at Morris in Manatoba, Canada

Morris, Feb. 13.—Trapped in a burning building, H. W. Sanders, beekeeper, at Morris, Man., died Friday morning. The fire was discovered at 10:30 a. m.

The building, adjoining to Mr. Sanders' residence, was a storehouse for beekeeping supplies, and contained 1,000 pounds of beeswax. The cause of the fire is not known.

A fire alarm brought quick assistance to the scene. The burning building was broken into and Mr. Sanders was rushed from there to the Morris hospital, where artificial respiration was administered for an hour by Dr. W. Colbert and two assistants, but to no avail.

A postmortem, performed by Dr. A. Landry of St. Jean, showed death due to carbon monoxide. An inquest will be held on Feb. 20.

Mr. Sanders was manager of the Trump Oil company here and kept bees as a hobby. Born in England, he lived in Winnipeg for a time, went to Califoria, and then returned to this country. He resided in Morris for the past 10 years

Surviving are his wife, a son, Edward, Transcona, and a daughter, Mrs. W. Badger, Waskada.

The above clipping is from a Canadian newspaper and was brought into the Herald office Friday afternoon by Mrs. H. E. Graham who said that friends in Cameron who want to correspond with Mrs. Sanders may address her at Morris, Manatoba, Canada.

Mr Sanders made frequent visits to Cameron to buy bees from Mr. Graham and took them to Canada and during one summer here he taught Sunday School.

Gobs Organnze Here; Won't Associate With Any Man In Khaki

Men of the navy, those who saw service in world war No. 1, feel themselves on a much higher plane than land lubbers and they have organized in Cameron.

The fleet is in and the boys who have been at sea so long have taken over the town and this means a blackout for the small fry who wear khaki.

August Kunz has been elected Captain of the Heads. A meeting was held here on the night of February 12, at which time a banquet was served to all men who were in the navy during the last war.

Grady Little, who took prominent part in moblizing the ex-sailors, said that a resolution had been passed upon his motion and seconded by John Muse as follows: "Henceforth remnants of the naval strength in Cameron, Texas, of the 1917-18 vintage, present here tonight, do here and now sever all relations with any man clad in khaki and commonly referred to as soldiers."

Other matters were discussed and plans are made to carry the organization further.

VIOLENT BATTLE OFF COAST OF SUMATRA

Japanese encirclement of Java, the fabulously rich Island of the Dutch East Indies, was completed today in one of the hardest fought battles of the war.

American bombing planes had sunk eight Japanese warships and transports off the coast of Sumatra, but despite all of this the Japanese made landings and were rapidly completing the Singapore end of the giant pincer which is soon to engulf the whole of South Pacific.

In Java American soldiers were fighting for the first time while the Japanese were stepping up their bombing attacks and landing troops.

Sumatra has virtually been given up and not far away the Japanese are breaking the British lines and Rangoon has been abandoned as a port of entry to the Burma Road.

Off the Malay peninsula powerful units of the Japanese fleet were said to be in operation.

There was nothing to report from the Philippines and reinforcements reported to be landing in Java were said by the Dutch to be insufficient.

The Russians were supplying the only allied victory of the day. They announced that the seige of Leningrad had been broken and that Red troops are on the Latvian border.

From Moscow came the report that Russia would have a sensational announcement to make shortly with reference to progress of the war.

FROM BELTON

Recently a Bell county man asked his boss: "Who is this Pearl Yarbrough I have been told to remember so many times?" They say he was greatly surprised to learn of the things that had happened at Pearl Harbor.

Modest Statement is Made by Stalin on Red Army Day

News commentator in the United States have been busy for sevral days building up an expected Russian announcement of vast military victories on the eastern front.

Late Sunday Joseph Stalin gave out a statement which was characterized as an order to the Red Army is which he said the Russians will drive the Germans out of Russia.

The build up was a riduculous piece of propaganda of the type which tends to make complacency among the American people.

The Russians have gained important victories in the east but Stalin says the Germans are not yet defeated and grave days are ahead. Throughout the Red Empire army day is being celebrated and the Russian people have reason to be thankful for the brilliant feats of the Red commanders and their men. A characteristic message came from General Douglas MacArthur in the Philippines in which he said the Red Army has scored the greatest military victory in history.

Beyond the statement by Stalin there was no announcement and no details of how far the Russians have gone to turn the Germans back.

Ryan Field at Hemet, Califoria, for his primary training. From the first he was a good flier and his educational background enabled him to progress rapidly so that he finished his primary in good time and went to Moffet Field at Sunnyvale, Calif., where he received his basic training. Moffet Field is similar to Randolph Field in Texas. For his advanced flying he went to Luke Field, Arizona, where recently he was given his commission and graduated to that growing class of American Eagles who are flying for Uncle Sam's army in the greatest war in all history.

Lieut. Newton is the son of Mrs. W. R. Newton, Sr., of Cameron and son of the late Dr. W. R. Newton, Sr. He visited his mother here recently when he was transferred to Barksdale at Shreveport.

In completing his course of flying which carried him through three air fields, Lieut. Newton is a credit to the service, a credit to his home city of Cameron and to the prominent family from which he springs.

strength of Southwestern Life.

Assets are $80,618,343.61 reflecting an increase of $7,203,213.84 for 1941—a gain of $977,304.50 over the increase reported for 1940, which was the largest in the company's history.

The company continued its enviable record of never having had a default of either interest or principal on any bond owned by it. The report also shows that the company carries no real estate in excess of current market value and that it continued to earn a rate of interest during 1941 in excess of 4 per cent.

During the past year, the company continued to pioneer innovations in the field of legal reserve life insurance business. At its annual agency convention held in Galveston during last June, Mr. O'Donnell announced a retirement program for agents which has been nationally acclaimed as one of the leading pension plans to be adopted in the industry. The company began a sales training program for new agents in 1940 which has attained enviable results, and the institution was one of the first to inaugurate a salary plan for new salesmen, as an income floor to guarantee revenue beneath which they would not fall during their first year in the business.

The company confines its business to the state of Texas and aside from its investments in United States government securities, practically all of its investments are in Texas.

Since 1903, the 39th annual report shows that Southwestern Life has paid out to policyowners and beneficiaries $76,597,298.15.

want this country to prepare and who now want us to keep our ships, our men and our planes at home to defend our own shores, are urging a policy that will in the long run make that defense most difficult. Had America realized two years ago how important it was to keep the war away from America we would be in a much happier condition today.

One other item that recalls our past mistakes that should by all means be avoided in the future is the recent evidence that the Vichy French have used American supplies to enable them to supply the German army in North Africa and probably more recently the German submarines off the coast of Northern South America. It should also be remembered that had not the French government welcomed the Japs in French Indo China it would have been impossible for Japan to strike at the Philippinse and the Indies as they have. In short, Vichy France has opened the door for most of the reverses that the Democracies have suffered the past two years. I can't see why we don't stop trading with them. I know that the same people who now say we should send food and oil to French North Africa, to Martineque, etc., wanted us to trade with Japan right up to December 7, 1941. They said that we should have a show-down. I don't believe that appeasement ever paid, and I don't believe that it will now pay. If we don't take a firm stand with Vichy France, I expect to see the French fleet attack us at the time it can do us the most damage, just as the Japs did. I think we should "scotch" this danger while we can;—not let it get worse each day as we did with Japan.

I realize that the above is but the idea of a "curbstone admiral" and that Congress, like the rest of the nation, must rely on and follow the State Department and the Army and Navy in these matters, but we do feel a tremendous interest just as each of you do. In the meantime, we continue to do the one thing that we must do, and which no one else can do,—that is to appropriate money to carry on the war. Each week I feel that we will surely never again have a single bill carrying so much money. Now I am ready to admit that I don't know how large these bills may get. The Army bill we passed this week was as large as the entire national debt at the end of the first World War

With best wishes, I am

Yours very sincerely,

W. R. POAGE,

Congressman, 11th Texas District.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 1, 1942.

The Golden Text is: "God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4.19)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philppi, he asked his disciples, saying Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? . . . And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Matt. 16:13, 16.)

The Lesson Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christ expresses God's spirtual, eternal nature. The name is synonymous with Messiah, and alludes to the spirituality which is taught, illustrated, and demonstrated in the life of which Christ Jesus was the embodiment. The proper name of our Master in the Greek was Jesus the Christ; but Christ Jesus better signifies the Godlike" (page 333.)

Avoid Replanting! TREAT COTTONSEED WITH CERESAN

Progressive planters of Texas, Oklahoma and every other cotton state have proved how successfully CERESAN seed treatment reduces seed rotting and sore-shin, generally improves stands, saves costly replanting and commonly increases yields—often 10 to 25%. Oklahoma A. & M. College reports, "Dusting the seed with Ceresan is in more general use than any other cottonseed-treatment..." Temple, Texas, reports some tests in which "germination was doubled." Give your seed this protection this year! CERESAN costs only a few cents an acre; is easy to use. Get it from your dealer and treat your own seed, or buy seed marked with the Ceresan Certificate Tag.

TREAT OTHER SEEDS, TOO!

Use Semesan Jr. for corn; New Improved Ceresan for small grains; Semesan for vegetables; Semesan Bel for potatoes.

MRS. GUY T. NEWTON TO ENTER CIVIL SERVICE

Mrs. Guy T. Newton County Superintendent, has resigned the office, effective March 1, 1942.

Her resignation was filed with County Judge Jeff T. Kemp Tuesday morning.

In a letter to the Court Mrs. Newton expressed her appreciation for the courtesty and co-operation she has received and states further that she has passed a Civil Service examination and has wanted for sometime to be engaged in this kind of work. The duties of the office of the County Superintendent, she says, had become increasingly burdensome and she feels that she can no longer perform them.

In a separate letter filed with the Court Mrs. Newton recommends as her successor, Chas. M. Hicks, who was a candidate in 1940 and was defeated by Mrs. Newton in the run off primary.

Judge Jeff T. Kemp said that he is calling a meeting of the Commissioners' Court for 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. It is presumed that the matter of a successor to Mrs. Newton will be taken up by the Court.

Mrs. Newton succeeded her late husband, Guy T. Newton, as County Superintendent when she was appointed by the Commissioners' Court following his death in 1939. She was a candidate in the Primary of 1940, and led the ticket in a field of several candidates. In her letter to the Court recommending Mr. Hicks, she expresses confidence in his ability and at the same time expresses the belief that in as much as he was second best in the campaign of 1940, that he is no doubt deserving of consideration by the Court. Such procedure is unusual and it was taken here as an indication of the high regard in which Mr. Hicks is held by the people as well as by the office of the Superintendent.

Mrs. Newton, it was understood, plans to leave Cameron in the future for a position in Austin.

NOT ONE VESSEL LEFT IN WATERS OFF BALI

The Japanese invasion fleet off the island of Bali in the Dutch East Indies was wiped out in a three day battle in which American naval units and airmen took part along with the gallant Dutch.

Details of the successful offensive, the first since the war began, were not yet complete.

A broadcast at 9 a. m. Monday said that not a single Japanese warship, transport or supply ship is left in the waters which are covered with the wreckage of some 35 Japanese ships.

One Japanese warship escaped destruction when it fled the scene of the battle.

Japanese troops landed in Bali have no support from the sea and may be killed or capturel by the Dutch.

It was the greatest single naval victory in the two months old war and the fighting mettle of the Americans has again been proven. The shame of it is that there are only a few gallant air men and naval units in these waters.

For the present the invasion attempt on Java has been smashed although the Japs were believed to be planning an early return to the isle.

The official Washington communication Monday said that at least 20 Japanese ships are definitely known to have been damaged or sunk. Other sources said that not one enemy ship had been left off the Bali coast.

BATTLE SAID STILL RAGING OFF SUMATRA

Eighteen Japanese ships, five of them cruisers and four destroyers, have been sunk by American naval units and American bombing planes off the Island of Bali, in what is regarded as the opening phase of the battle of Java, the last and strongest of the Dutch East Indies islands.

Eleven transports including small vessels were sent to the bottom as American destroyers and cruisers, given air support, closed in on the Japanese who were landing and storming the isle of Bali.

A noon dispatch from Washington said that the American forces had lost one destroyer and eight men are known to have lost their lives when the ship was hit by a torpedo from a Japanese submarine.

The battle began on Thursday and was said to be continuing although the little island af Bali has been surrounded and over run by the Japanese.

There was no indication that anything was being done effectively to stop the Japanese march for a conquest of the entire South Pacific.

On the Island of Java the Dutch army is still intact and with it are native troops and a few Americans who have landed there during past weeks.

When news came of the spectacular naval battle off Bali it was taken to indicate what might have been if only the government in Washington had taken precautions by placing armed forces in the far east or since war began had the government sent soldiers to reinforce positions in the Indies. The Japanese are no match for the Americans and this has been proven in numerous aerial and naval battles.

Seven allied ships, three of them American ships, were reported sunk today in the North Atlantic by German submarines in what is believed to be an all out offensive against this country by Germany.

In the battle of Bali American bombers and dive bombers took part. The Americans lost 4 ships in the day's operation.

The Red Army has announced new important gains against the Germans all along the front of 2,000 miles and in Libya where the fortunes of war have moved armies to all sections of the desert, the Germans were retreating in bad weather.

In Burma the British apparently were holding the Japanese back and a major battle was in progress with heavy losses on both sides.

ISLAND OF BAILI IS LOST TO JAPANESE

Despite the success of the America-Dutch air and naval offensive against the Japanese invasion fleet off Bali the island was said Tuesday to have been lost to the invaders.

This co-incides with statements on Monday that the plan is to fight a delaying action. President Roosevelt said as much, to make the Japs pay as heavily as possible for their gains until the United Nations are ready for an offensive.

Java was bombed by 3 formations of Jap planes Tuesday and the people are said to have been warned of the coming invasion attempt within the matter of hours or days.

The British have been pushed back in Burma. Nothing else was expected of the small force the British have in Burma. A chinese announcement said the Burma Road has been cut.

A Japanese submarine shelled the coast of California early Tuesday morning. Japanese fifth columnists were seen flashing signals from the hills near an oil refinery.

Lieut. John M. Atkinson and 6 Crew Members Of Army Bomber Escape From 300 Feet of Water As Ship Plunges Down Off Island of Ouhu

Lt. John M. Atkinson, Army Air Corps, stationed in Ouhu, Hawaiian Islands, in a letter to his parents Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Atkinson of Austin tells of a recent experience in which he and six other crew members of a twin motored bomber narrowly escaped death in the waters off the Island.

Miss Lillian Atkinson of Cameron, aunt of Lt. Atkinson, gave the Daily Herald a few details of the crash.

Lt. Atkinson, pilot, took off from an air base in Ouhu with six crew members of this ship loaded with bombs. At an altitude of about 800 feet both motors of the ship suddenly stopped. Realizing the situation was desperate Lt. Atkinson made ready to land the ship as best be could and did succeed in getting down on the waters near a ship.

Lt. Atkinson said that as the ship was losing altitude and plunging down toward the water that the crew members tightened their life belts and prepared for the worst. The ship plunged 300 feet beneath the waters but all men escaped through a hatch and were picked up by the nearby vessel.

The next day the ship was salvaged and brought back to the air base.

Lt. Atkinson got his wings at Fort Stockton, Calif., in May, 1942, and is now on duty with the army in the Hawaiian Islands.

In the crash off Ouhu he said the only thing he lost was his toothbrush. He was born and reared in Cameron and many of his boyhood friends here and friends of the family will be glad to know of his escape from the ship beneath the waves.

British Cannot Do Anything About the Burma Situation

The British are making another Singapore out of Burma.

The Japanese are expected to make a successful conclusion of the Burma campaign within the next few days.

The British are falling back and they have abandoned Rangoon, the capital of Burma, and it will be another disaster.

They can not win a victory in this war because the British General Staff cannot conceive of a large scale operation.

Already the Burma Road is threatened and supplies to China must go by Calcutta.

WONDER WHAT A FRECHMAN THINKS ABOUT

Two years ago a Frenchman was as free as you are. Today what do you think——as he humbly steps into the gutter to let his conquerors swagger past,

—as he works fifty-three hours a week for thirty hours pay,

—as he sees all trade unions outlawned and all the "rights" for which he sacrificed his country, trampled by his foreign masters,

—as he sees his wife go hungry and his children face a lifetime of serfdom?

What does that Frenchman—soldier, workman, politician, or business man think today? Probably it's something like this—"I wish I had been less greedy of myself and more anxious for my country; I wish I had realized you can't beat off a determined invader by a quarreling, disunited people at home; I wish I had been willing to give in on some of my rights, to other Frenchmen instead of giving up all of them to a foreigner; I wish I had realized other Frenchmen had rights, too; I wish I had known that patriotism is work, not talk; giving, not getting."

And if that Frenchman could read our newspapers today, showing pressure groups each demanding things to be done for them instead of for our country, wouldn't he say to American business men, politicians, soldiers and workmen, "If you knew the terrible penalty your action is bound to bring, you'd bury your differences now before they bury you; you'd work for your country as you never worked before, and wait for your private ambitions until your country is safe. Look at me—I worked too little, and too late."—Turrent Lathe.
